I have examined the foregoing accounts of the Treasurer of the Peabody Institute in Peabody, Mass., together with the securities named therein, and find the same to be correct.

April 27, 1927.

Trustees of the Peabody Institute,
Peabody, Mass.

Gentlemen:—

In accordance with your instructions we have audited the books and accounts of the Treasurer of the Trustees for the year ended December 31, 1926 and report thereon as follows:

The income from interest on bonds, dividends on stocks, and bank interest has been verified and all found to be accounted for properly. The average rate of income from securities and savings bank deposits for 1926 was 4.59% on the book value of securities and cash at the beginning of the year. Receipts from rent of hall and sundry receipts by the library were not verified but accepted as shown in the cash books. Rents from houses owned were as follows:

Hammond House, 11 Wallis Street	$ 300.00
Merrill House, 9 Wallis Street	545.00
Wallis House, 66 Main Street	3,180.00
	$4,025.00

Cancelled checks and vouchers were on hand covering all disbursements; the vouchers being properly approved where such approval was necessary.

The cash balance as shown by the cash books were in agreement with certificates of balance obtained from the bank as of December 31, 1926, after making allowance for outstanding checks and items in transit.

The securities and savings bank books representing the investments of the various funds were examined and found to be on hand as called for by the records. The savings bank accounts were verified by correspondence with the banks.

The insurance policies covering the buildings, personal property, and liability insurance were listed and found to be in good order and apparently sufficient to cover the property.

Attached hereto, and forming a part of this report, are three schedules showing the transactions for the year and the condition of the funds at the end of the year.

Very respectfully,

SEAMANS, STETSON & TUTTLE,
Certified Public Accountants.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

To the Trustees of the Peabody Institute:

Gentlemen:—The reports of the Librarians and of the Sub-Committees of the Lyceum and Library Committee are herewith submitted. They present in full the work of the Institute for the year ending December 31, 1927.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLARD W. WOODMAN,
Chairman Lyceum and Library Committee.

Report of the Library Committee for the Year Ending December 31, 1927

With an increase of nearly 15% in the circulation of books, the Library made a new record for the year. Great credit is due the Librarian and his assistants for the manner in which the work was accomplished.

The establishment of a children's reading room had been the ambition of the Librarian for many years, its success has demonstrated the wisdom of his judgment.

The young people, in steadily increasing numbers, are taking advantage of its opportunities, at times taxing the capacity of the room. The books provided for them are carefully selected, and their distribution made with a consideration for the age and other conditions of the applicants. In this way their young minds will acquire a taste for good reading, which is important, considering the unsound, vicious and immoral literature that degenerate writers are now giving to the public.

The great increase in the circulation of books during the year, shows the urgent need of a larger appropriation to provide for this increased service.

In the children's Library, there are less than 2200 books, and the circulation exceeded 45,000, which shows how many times each book was in circulation, and the necessity for a large addition of books the coming year.

When Mr. Peabody donated the money for the establishment of a public library in his native town, he provided adequately for the requirements of that time. But conditions have changed, the population has changed, and the Library probably more than any other public institution in the city, is effected by those changes. Had the great philanthropist anticipated such changes, he would assuredly in his wonderful generosity have provided for them. Therefore the necessity for providing for this new and necessary addition to the work of the Library, should be borne, in part, by the city, because it is a branch of our educational institutions, and is working in cooperation with our schools.

In the selection of books for the Library, the committee are pleased to acknowledge the valuable assistance of the Librarian.

During the year, an effort was made by the Watch and Ward Society, and others, to prevent the circulation of books that were violating the sacred tenets of christian morality. It is gratifying to note, that none of those books escape the scrutiny of our Librarian, and some of them were condemned and rejected in the Peabody Library, before any public action had been taken against them.

We have another class of writers, who are endeavoring to gain notoriety by traducing the memory of men whose names are honored and respected, not only in America, but in every civilized country in the world. Such writers deserve the contempt of every true American.

The father of his country will continue to be first in the hearts of his countrymen, long after the names of his critics are forgotten.

No friendly historian can add to the honor that belongs to the patriots of the American Revolution, and no writer, however mendacious, can sully their names in the minds of their countrymen.

There is an urgent need of more books in the children's Library, the limited number on its shelves is retarding its success. Three thousand additional books are needed.

Miss Madolyn E. Murphy, who succeeded Miss Bogart as assistant in the children's Library, came to Peabody with high recommendations from her former position, and from the State department. Those parties who endorsed her so highly, did not overestimate her qualifications.

Miss Johnson who had charge of the work from the resignation of Miss Bogart until the arrival of Miss Murphy, is a very capable assistant. The management of the Library in all departments is conducted in a very efficient manner. Mr. Keefe, in addition to his other duties, is making many important and desirable changes in the main Library.

The janitors are giving good service and their duties are performed in a very satisfactory manner.

For the Committee,

P. H. O'CONOR,

Chairman.

Librarian's Report

To the Lyceum and Library Committee:—

I respectfully submit the following report for the year ending December 31, 1927.

The circulation of books continue to increase, which is most gratifying to all interested in our library work. The circulation for the year was 70,350, an increase of about 10,000 more than in 1926.

During the year the work of renovating the Library has been continued. The reference room has been enlarged and a table and chairs have been added, to accommodate the constantly growing patronage. We have removed the old stack from both sides of the rear of the Library and replaced them with modern and up-to-date equipment, thereby making necessary ventilation possible, improving appearance, increasing light, and eliminating the use of ladders which have so long been a source of danger to the library staff. In the near future we hope to have the entire Library renovated and re-organized.

A complete inventory has been taken and a list of replacements has been compiled.

In regard to the reference work in the Library—there is constant and continued use of the resources supplied by this department. It is gratifying to the librarian to report the great increase in the demand for Library service.

It is with much pleasure that I call your attention to the continued popularity of our new Children's Department, which is giving a real service to the school children of our city by a well regulated program. Last February, Miss Madolyn E. Murphy, librarian of the Children's Department, came to us from the Southbridge, Mass. Library, where she had faithfully served and won the praise of the State Library Commission. This latter body of officials was pleased to give Miss Murphy a high endorsement for efficiency and painstaking efforts to promote the welfare of the young readers. She possesses the happy faculty of making friends with the children and of guiding them along the lines of best reading. Under her direction there has been a noticeable increase in the number of children availing themselves of this new service of our Library. Miss Esther Johnson has proved her worth as a capable assistant in this department. These two young ladies have greatly aided our library work in this community.

In the Children's Library, despite the fact that the appropriation is inadequate to meet the demands, there has been a large increase in the number of books circulated. With only 2170 books, our circulation was over 45,000, which means that each book averaged to go out over twenty times. Boston Public Library boasts of an average of nine circulations to a book.

Saturday mornings there was a story hour from 10.30 to 11.30. Students from Salem Normal School, as well as the librarian and assistant librarian told stories to the different grades. A Girl's Reading Club of fifteen girls was started. This club met for an hour Saturdays and read books and plays and gave book reports. The Keefe and Center schools were visited during the year but due to the scarcity of books, it will be impossible to visit other schools until later. This fall we have instigated state certificate reading and a large number of boys and girls are reading for Honor Certificates.

Children's Book Week, Nov. 13th to Nov. 19th, nearly one hundred new books were kept on exhibition and many parents came to get ideas for book purchase.

We wish to thank the principals and teachers of the schools for their co-operation, in assisting us to recover overdue books, and to thank the Normal School girls for their help in our Story Hour.

Our membership in the Library Art Club has been continued and during the year we have placed on exhibition 17 sets of pictures.

I gratefully acknowledge the support and co-operation of the Library Committee, also members of the staff, who have shown both interest and enthusiasm in their work.

Statistics in the usual form are hereby appended.

JOHN E. KEEFE, Librarian.
